Dear ICPA Supporter,

The seventh national conference of the International Compliance Professionals Association (ICPA) is underway scheduled for March 14 – 18, 2010 in Orlando, FL! As many of you are aware, the ICPA conference committee is working overtime to get prepared for next year.

There will be 600 attendees providing a unique outreach and marketing opportunity, including exposure to key decision makers in the import and export compliance industry from many of the top importers and exporters in the country. ICPA is a non-profit trade association representing over 1,500 import and export compliance professionals from various industry sectors of the international trade community. ICPA membership includes senior level compliance professionals from many of the top importers and exporters in the United States and around the world.

This year's program has been designed to include educational opportunities and discussion on trade topics to meet the needs of both novice and experienced compliance professionals. The scheduled sessions will be offered in 5 different tracks for participants to choose from: Imports, Exports, Boot Camp, General Interest and Special Workshops. This year, the scheduled sessions will cover a variety of topics including:

- CPSIA
- IncoTerms
- Buy American Act
- Preventing Export Violations
- Importer Identity Theft

We would like to invite your company to participate in this event as a conference sponsor. The conference will be held at the Contemporary Resort at Walt Disney World. The various sponsorship opportunities are outlined in the sponsorship detail below; however, registration for your chosen sponsorship level will be available online for your convenience! There will be more details and instructions to follow!

Registration for Platinum and Gold sponsorship begins November 20th this year. All other Sponsorship levels will be able to register beginning December 21st. If you have any questions, you can contact the sponsorship team directly at sponsorinfo@icpainsc.org.

Regards,

Stacey Krause

2010 Sponsorship Details

You will automatically receive the option of having a booth as a sponsor, but, we are limited on the number of booths available and therefore must have your commitment to secure your spot if you are indeed interested in having a booth. There is not an option to be an exhibitor only.

This is going to be handled on a first come, first serve basis so ensure you make your decision to sponsor quickly. Once your sponsorship money has been received, we will be contacting you to choose the spot for your booth. Additional details on the space and rules for setting up will follow closer to the conference.
